

HOW TO ASK THE JUDGE TO PARTICIPATE IN A COURT CASE FOR FREE OR AT A REDUCED COST

NOTE: If there are any words or terms used in these instructions that you do not understand, please visit Illinois Legal Aid Online at illinoislegalaid.org/lexicon/glossary. For more information about going to court including how to fill out and file forms, call or text Illinois Court Help at 833-411-1121 or go to ilcourthelp.gov.

Who can ask the judge to participate in a court case for free or at a reduced cost?

Anyone who must pay a fee as part of a court case. You can ask for yourself, your minor child, or an incompetent adult, but not for anyone else.

How will I know if there is a fee?

The Circuit Clerk can tell you if there is a fee for filing a document with the court. Other fees might come up during the case. For example, the judge might tell you about a fee or the sheriff's department might tell you about a fee for delivering (serving) court papers.

What forms do I need to fill out?

- Application for Waiver of Court Fees: Is used to tell the judge whether you get any public benefits and your income and expense information so they can decide if you can participate in a court case for free or at a reduced cost. The email address (if you have one) and mailing address you put on the Application is where important legal documents will be sent to you. You should use an email account that you do not share with anyone else and that you check every day. If you do not check your email every day, you may miss important information, notice of court dates, or documents from other parties.
- Order for Waiver of Court Fees: Is used by the judge to say your application is granted or denied.

Where can I find the forms I need?

You can find forms at: illinoiscourts.gov/documents-and-forms/approved-forms.

Do I have to pay to file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

No, there is no cost for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees.

Is there a deadline for filing an Application for Waiver of Court Fees?

- No. You can file an Application for Waiver of Court Fees at any time during the court case.

- It might take the judge a couple of days to review your application and to decide whether you have to pay fees, so don't wait until the last minute.
- You are responsible for knowing if there are other deadlines to file documents.

How do I prove I cannot afford to pay court fees?

The judge may require you to prove the information in your Application. If you get public benefits you may want to bring proof of current eligibility and benefits statement from the agency providing the benefit.

Examples of public benefits are:

- Supplemental Security Income (SSI) (Not Social Security)
- Aid to the Aged, Blind, and Disabled (AABD)
- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF)
- SNAP (Food Stamps)
- General Assistance (GA), Transitional Assistance, or State Children & Family Assistance

If you do not get public benefits, you may want to bring documents showing your income, value of belongings (for example, real estate), and expenses.

What happens if my Application is granted?

Depending upon your circumstances, the judge may order that:

- You may participate for free;
- You must pay 25% of any fee charged;
- You must pay 50% of any fee charged; OR
- You must pay 75% of any fee charged.

If my Application is granted, will I ever have to pay fees?

- If the judge grants your Application and later decides that the information you put in your Application was incorrect and you were ineligible, the judge can make you pay back any fees that were waived.
- If the court believes that your financial situation has changed and you are no longer eligible for a full or partial fee waiver, the court can hold a hearing to decide whether you are still eligible. If you are no longer eligible, you will have to pay future fees.
- If the court decides you do not have to pay all or some of the court fees and you win your case and get money from the other side, the court may make you use all or part of this money to pay the court fees.

When does my fee waiver expire?

It is good for one year. If you still need the fee waiver after it expires, you will need to file a new Application. However, this does not mean you have to pay back fees that were already waived.

What do I do after I fill out the Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Order for Waiver of Court Fees?

Step 1: File your Application for Waiver of Court Fees and Order for Waiver of Court Fees with the Circuit Clerk in the county where your court case was filed.

- You must electronically file (e-file) court documents unless (1) you are an inmate in a prison or jail and you do not have a lawyer, (2) you have a disability that keeps you from e-filing, or (3) you qualify for an exemption from e-filing.
 - You will qualify for an exemption if: (1) you do not have internet or computer access at home and it would be difficult for you to travel to a place where you could use a computer; (2) you have trouble reading or speaking in English, or (3) you tried to e-file your documents, but you were unable to complete the process because the equipment or assistance you need is not available.
 - If you qualify for an exemption, fill out a Certification for Exemption from E-Filing found here: illinoiscourts.gov/documents-and-forms/approved-forms
 - File the original and 1 copy of your form and the Certification with the Circuit Clerk's office in person or by mail.
 - To e-file, create an account with an e-filing service provider.
 - Visit efile.illinoiscourts.gov/service-providers.htm to select a service provider. Some service providers are free while others charge a processing fee. For instructions on how to e-file for free with Odyssey eFileL, see the self-help user guides here: illinoiscourts.gov/self-help/how-to-e-file/.
 - If you do not have access to a computer or if you need help e-filing, take your forms to the Circuit Clerk's office where you can use a public computer terminal to e-file your forms.
 - You can bring your forms on paper or saved on a flash drive.
 - The terminal will have a scanner and computer that you can use to e-file your form.
- The judge may need more information from you. The judge may want to have a hearing on your Application. The judge will notify you if you need to give more information or documents, or if you have to go to court.
 - Your court date could be in person, by phone, or by video. If it is by phone or video it is called a "Remote Appearance." Call the Circuit Clerk or visit their website for more information. To find the phone number for your Circuit Clerk, visit illinoiscourts.gov/courts/circuit-court/circuit-court-clerks/.
 - After the judge decides, they will fill out the Order for Waiver of Court Fees. This Order will say if you have to pay any court fees.
 - The judge or the Circuit Clerk will tell you:
 - How you will get a copy of the Order for Waiver of Court Fees.
 - When you will get a copy of the Order for Waiver of Court Fees.
 - If the judge decides you have to pay all or some of the court fees, you have to pay by the deadline set in the Order for Waiver of Court Fees. If you do not pay by the deadline, the judge may dismiss your case or find against you.

Step 2: Wait for a decision.

- The judge will review your Application for Waiver of Court Fees and decide whether you have to pay the court fees.
